Rev. W. S. Creasy read the memoir of John D. Belk.

REV. JOHN D. BELK.

Rev. John Darling Belk was born in Jackson Township, Union county, N. C., on the 17th day of June, 1865. On the 28th day of July, 1893, he quietly fell asleep, with strong faith and glorious hope of the resurrection, which to him would be eternal life. His parents were Mr. Jno. W. Belk and Mrs. Elizabeth D. Belk, nee McLain. His mother died in 1872. His oldest sister died in 1884. Five brothers and sisters survive him. Two brothers are preachers—Rev. Geo. W. Belk, of the Presbyterian Church, stationed at Chatham, Va., and Rev. S. R. Belk, of the North Georgia Conference, stationed at Gainesville, Ga. He was about 28 years old when God took him. His short life had been full of labor and toil for the Master. He joined the church when quite young, and began at once to prepare himself for usefulness in the church of his choice. He was a hard student, always leading his class. He attended the theological department at Vanderbilt University and completed the course with honor.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference on trial at Winston in Dec. 1892, and was appointed to B Street Church, Charlotte. He entered upon his work at once. And we can say without hesitation that no man ever grew more rapidly upon a people than he did. He did good, faithful work in every department, and was succeeding finely. He had about 25 sermons in manuscript. They show that his theme was Jesus. His last sermon, preached about two weeks before his death, was on "The Mysteries of God's Providence." It may be the events which were soon to take place were casting their shadows about him, and that for the time he was inspired to prophecy, that his preaching might give comfort when his tongue was still. He gave promise of a very useful and successful life. His prospects were as bright and flattering as any man among us. His diction was good, his rhetoric fine, and his thought on a high plane, which were all strengthened by a godly life and conversation. He was much esteemed by the ministers of the city conference and many kind and heartfelt words were spoken by them in regard to him. He was a lovable character. He was always a good boy. He was noted for his fidelity to the truth in all things. He was naturally religious and devotional. He loved home. In the language of one of his brothers, "He was always ready to make the rest of us happy, he was so true, so pure." A sister stood by him as he fell asleep, and out of the fullness of her heart exclaimed, "Oh, my brother, if I could I would willingly die in your stead." He was not afraid to die. He expressed himself as fully trusting in Jesus whom he preached. But he did so long to live that he might preach Jesus and work for Him longer. But God's ways are not ours, and He took him. We have the glorious consolation that "He is too wise to make any mistake, and too kind to willingly afflict his people." May God sustain and comfort the hearts of the father and brothers, sisters, congregations and friends thus solely bereaved. His funeral was preached by this writer before a large and sorrowing congregation at Mt. Tirzah, Union county, and we laid him to rest in the old church-yard, where his mother and sister are sleeping, to await the awaking of the just. May God help us to join him in the "city of God."

"There is a calm for those who weep,
A rest for weary pilgrims found,
And while the moldering ashes sleep,
Low in the ground,—

The soul, of origin divine,
God's glorious image, freed from clay,
In Heaven's eternal sphere shall shine,
A star of day."

Remarks were made by A. P. Tyler and T. J. Rogers.
Dr. James Atkins read the memoir of Jackson S. Burnett.

REV. JACKSON S. BURNETT.

Rev. Jackson S. Burnett was born in Knox county, Tennessee, on the first day of February, 1820. He was converted in his 17th year and was licensed to preach about three years later. His first work was as a supply on the Kingston Circuit in 1841-2. At the close of that Conference year he was admitted on trial into the Holsten Conference, which convened at Knoxville, Tenn., October 5th, 1842.

The following year he was junior preacher on the Pikeville Circuit. At the next Session of the Conference, he was appointed preacher in charge of the Pickens Circuit, in South Carolina, two districts of the Holsten Conference at that time being within that State. At the end of this year he was admitted into full connection (1844) at Reems' Creek, now Weaverville, N. C., and was ordained deacon by Bishop Janes. He was sent that fall to Asheville Circuit. The next year he was placed in charge of the Abingdon Station. In the fall of this year, 1846, he was ordained elder by Bishop Capers. The following year he was sent to the Abingdon Circuit, but had to fill the station also on account of the sudden, and what proved to be the life-long prostration of Rev. Timothy Sullins, who had been appointed to that work. On the 27th of April of this year (1847) he was married to Miss M. Eliza Alexander. The following year he was stationed at Jonesboro, Tenn. At the expiration of his year at Jonesboro the Conference at Knoxville established the Asheville Station and Bro. Burnett became its first pastor. When he had finished one year in this charge, he felt compelled by the failing health of his wife and an inadequate support, to locate. He then went into the mercantile business with his father-in-law, Col. J. Mitchell Alexander, at Alexander's, ten miles northwest of Asheville. He afterward lived and conducted business enterprises at Spartanburg and Asheville. He was successful in business. He was economical without being penurious, enterprising without being grasping, and amassed considerable means without becoming sordid. In the midst of his business career he was always an active and earnest preacher of righteousness. The men with whom he dealt in business were the ones most impressed by his message as a preacher. This fact has a volume in it. His history as a local preacher embraces a period of twenty-three years, and all the places at which he resided are marked by the fruits of his consecrated ministry and godly example. Within this period, in 1861, the wife of his youth, the mother of his children, died. Of his five children only three lived to maturity. His only daughter, Alice, married Prof. W. C. Kirkland, and died within a short time after marriage. The only surviving children are Wilbur, of Spartanburg, and Wiley B., of Athens, Ga., the one a banker and the other a lawyer. He was subsequently married three times: to Mrs. Myra Woodfin in 1870; to Miss Margaret Luckner in 1875; and to Miss Sallie Spann in 1890, the last of whom, after the most delicate and tenderest ministries to him in his declining days, survives him.

Bro. Burnett re-entered the Conference in 1872 and was sent to Abingdon Station, in which place he remained three years. At the expiration of this term, 1875, he was appointed to Church Street, Knoxville, then the foremost appointment in the Conference. Having served that charge with great acceptability for three years, he was appointed to the Asheville Station, where also he remained three years. This was his last charge. From that time, 1881, to the time of his death November 9th, 1893, he sustained the supernumerary relation.

The scope of this paper will not allow more than a very cursory estimate of these qualities which made the life and ministry of Bro. Burnett in so large a degree successful and influential. He was endowed by nature with gifts which were quite extra-ordinary. He was a man of quick perceptions, refined sentiments, courteous disposition, faultless taste, alert sensibilities, rich sympathies, liberal conceptions, and good power of generalization. On the moral side of his character the benevolent sentiments were vigorous and largely developed, while those of the malevolent type either never existed or had been eradicated by grace and Christian discipline. These qualities brought it about that he was easily the companion of the foremost men of his day, and was at the same time deeply beloved by men in the lowest walks of life. Perhaps no man ever embraced wider extremes, or a greater variety of men in the circle of his admirers and lovers than he. Bro. Burnett's estimate of himself was abundantly low. The conscious lack of early training led him to an habitual discount of his subsequent attainments, and made him a merciless judge of his own performances. He suffered much from the sense of an infirmity which did not exist in tanding his entrance upon professional life without classic learning, or even the drill of an ordinary school, he became a well educated man. This fact was revealed in his quick and adequate mastery of the great problems of social, business and religious life, and in the fact that he was conversant with the best literature of the day. In the companionship of the best authors he grew steadily to the end of life.

In the social circle Bro. Burnett exhibited gifts and attainments which were very rare. A quick sympathy with every order of life, a friend of varied and high-toned anecdote, a unique gift at repartee which made it sharp, but without a sting, the faculty of genuine wit, and the ability to illustrate all themes from the incidents and similitudes of common life, made him a charming member of all the circles to which his business or ministry called him. Those social gifts and graces so guarded by his quick conscience and refined taste as never to descend to anything coarse or low, only augmented his power when he passed from the social circle to the pulpit throne to speak as a messenger of God.

As a preacher Bro. Burnett had peculiar endowments and resources. His sermons were logical without exhibiting the processes; and, therefore, the people heard him gladly and without fatigue. His mistrust of his abilities usually prevented those bolder flights of statement and discussion of which he was largely capable. This gave to his preaching an eminently practical cast which caused it to meet the demands of every class of hearers. His style was terse, energetic and racy. Oftentimes in the discussion of a most serious theme there was a pleasant play of unstudied humor which sustained the interest of the hearer without discounting the majesty of the theme and the occasion. His chief ability, however, lay along the line of the nobler and tenderer sentiments. He recognized everywhere the well-established postulate of psychology that the feelings are the springs of action. He led his hearers into the path of duty by the views which he gave them of the beauty of meekness, faith, love and other Christian virtues.

No estimate of what Bro. Burnett accomplished by his ministry can be just without taking into account the fact that his early opportunities were almost nothing. He says that his school days were so few and unimpressive as to have left scarcely a memory of themselves in his mind. After a few years of uneventful farm life, he was called to a mercantile clerkship on account of his integrity and native brightness. After a few more years, filled with the care and labor of a merchant, he went into the ministry and within five years was able to occupy with distinction some of the best and most cultivated places in the Conference. It is also notable along the same line, that after twenty-three years in the local ranks, a period packed with business demands and domestic cares, he re-entered the Conference and without a new probation was sent successively to three of the leading stations, where his ministry was completely satisfactory to the powers which had appointed him and to the people whom he served. In this long interim of itinerant work he was so busy in his Master's work, so aggressive in his reading and thought, so in sympathy with every right advance of the younger life underneath him, that he returned to the itinerant ranks without being behind.

Bro. Burnett's religious life was also of a high order. His conviction was deep, his conversion clear, and his growth in every Christian grace constant and solid. These graces reached their earthly maturity in the last months of his life, when, shut in from the world, he gave his time to meditation and prayer. His last days were made glorious for himself and his friends by the divine grace which made his spirit and the life about it radiant with celestial splendors. His peace flowed like a river, so that no one came into contact with him without feeling the hallowing and strengthening influence of his communion with God. When the writer was starting to the recent session of the Holsten Conference, Bro. Burnett said: "Tell my brethren that the fight is over, and that by the grace of God I die without leaving any blot on the escutcheon of the ministry." He said also: "In falling, I conquer. I have had life-long troubles which I feared might gather thicker about the sunset gates, but they have gone, and I pray God to keep me in this state till the close." His prayer was answered. The sun of his great life went down without a cloud, and left a supernal radiance on all the circles it had touched. He rests in peace and mingles again with loved ones of his own household and with scores of his co-adjutors who with him felled the fruits of our religious inheritance and entered before him into the heavenly rest.

"Yet love will dream and Faith will trust (Since He who knows our need is just)
That somehow, somewhere, meet we must,
Alas, for him who never sees the stars shine through
His cypress trees. Who hopeless, lays his dead away,
Nor looks to see the breaking day
Across the mournful marbles play! Who hath
Not learned in hours of faith, the truth to flesh
And sense unknown, that life is ever
Lord of Death, and Love can never lose its own!"

Remarks were made by T. W. Smith, C. W. Byrd, W. H. Leith, D. Atkins, S. H. Hilliard, R. H. Parker and Bishop W. W. Duncan.

On motion the report was adopted.

Rev. Dr. J. R. Brooks introduced the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., lately associated with many of us in Conference fellowship, has recently been most sorely bereaved by the death of his most estimable and accomplished wife, Mrs. Mary Fleming Black, and his manly son, Mr. Sam'l F. Black, therefore,

Resolved, That we extend to Dr. Black and his motherless children our sincere and profound sympathy, and assure them of our prayer that God's sustaining and comforting grace may be abundantly given them in this dark hour.

APPENDIX.

The Committee on Paine Institute beg leave to report :

This Institute established for the education of teachers and preachers of the colored M. E. Church, is no longer an experiment. It has overcome great obstacles, and is now in the 11th year of its existence. It has educated 18 preachers besides those who had a partial course, and quite a number of teachers.

It has an able faculty of very competent men and women.

Rev. Geo. W. Walker is president. He is from our sister State of South Carolina, and a graduate of Wofford College. Through his self-sacrificing labors, the Institute has been carried up to its present efficiency. The Colored M. E. Church deserves our sympathy and help. Its membership are virtually ours, and it recognizes this position. The school must necessarily depend upon outside help, and to whom should it look as confidently as to us. President Walker has furnished us a full financial exhibit of its financial status, and we find $25,000 in endowment funds and $15,000 in good productive funds.

The Board of Trustees requests through Dr. Smith, their representative, to express their appreciation of the assessment and contribution heretofore made, and requests that the Conference continue the assessment of $300 for the next Conference year, which shall be divided by the Board of Finance among the districts, and we advise that this request shall be granted by the Conference.

The committee would suggest that our preachers and people everywhere give encouragement to the people of the Colored Methodist Church and assist them in every way possible, and they see no better way than by establishing and supporting this Institution.

Respectfully submitted,

L. W. CRAWFORD.

T. W. SMITH.

C. W. TILLFTT.

REPORT No. 1.

Resolved 1st, That we recommend the adoption of the Western Carolina Advocate as the organ of the Western N. C. Conference, and that we ask Bishop Duncan to appoint Rev. P. L. Groome editor of it.

Resolved 2nd, That a commission, consisting of J. H. Weaver, J. R. Scroggs, James Atkins, F. C. Robbins, C. G. Montgomery, be appointed to confer with a similar commission of the North Carolina Conference touching the advisability of a consolidation of the two papers, viz: The Western Carolina Advocate and the Raleigh Christian Advocate, on such terms as may be agreeable to the owners of the said papers.

Resolved 3rd, That in the event of the consolidation of the two papers, the resulting paper shall be the organ of the Western North Carolina Conference, that we will encourage and help its circulation by all proper means, and that we will discourage the inauguration or conduct of any other newspaper within our bounds which might come in competition with said consolidated paper or the Western Carolina Advocate, pending the consolidation.

Resolved 4th, That we ask Bishop Duncan to appoint Rev. D. Atkins as one of the editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

S. B. TURRENTINE,
Secretary.

J. W. JONES,
Chairman.

Dec. 1, 1893.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report, No. 2:

We rejoice to learn that our Publishing House reports a healthy condition, that our people are improving in the purchase of pure, solid literature; that there has been some improvement in the sale of our Quarterly Review; that there has been an improvement in the quality of our missionary literature, as shown in the Missionary Review; that our Sunday-school literature and Nashville Christian Advocate maintain their former excellence.

We regret to learn that there has been some decrease in the sale of our Epworth League literature.

We especially recommend, in addition to the above, the following to be read by our people: Hudson's Armor, Shield, and Catechism, Rev. Ira Erwin's Catechism, and Dr. Johns Handbook on Missions.

S. B. TURRENTINE,
Secretary.

J. W. JONES,
President.

Dec. 4, 1893.

[Document No. 3.]

Our General Agent, Rev. T. J. Gattis, reports sales for the year 1892-3 of $6,430.92 which is $1,862.34 less than reported last year. Considering the unparalled stringency in money matters we think this report quite complimentary. We are satisfied he has done all that could have been expected of our agent, and we ask his re-appointment to this work in the same relations as last year. Believing that our books and literature are vital to our church's well being, we suggest to our preachers in charge the necessity of paying increased attention to the disciplinary requirement of "seeing that our people are duly supplied with our books and periodicals."

We regret to learn that some of our preachers fail to make settlements with the agent, and thus embarrass him in carrying on this most important work. We urge our preachers not to buy more books than they feel they can pay for by the end of the year.

Respectfully submitted,

C. M. CAMPBELL, Chairman.

J. T. STOVER, Secretary.

[Document No. 4.]

Your Committee on the Bible Cause would respectfully report to the Conference,

That we have had the pleasure and benefit of the presence of the Rev. A. S. Hunt, one of the Corresponding Secretaries of the American Bible Society, and Rev. T. H. Law, District Superintendent for North and South Carolina, from whom we have obtained the following facts:

1. From the beginning of our Foreign Missionary work up to the present time, the American Bible Society, at heavy expense, has been supplying gratuitously all our missionaries in the foreign field, with the scriptures in the languages of the people among whom they labor, and continue to translate and distribute the Bible in all these fields as the work demands.

2. It not only furnishes the scriptures at our doors at cost of manufacture, but now proposes to supply all the children of our Sunday-schools who do not have the Bible at one-half the cost of publication.

We therefore, as a Church, owe a great debt of gratitude to this Society for these benefits, and it must be confessed, are doing but little to discharge the obligation. Our Conference only reported $90 for this work last year, or about 1½ mills per church member. This year the District Superintendent has received $41.72 to which is to be added a small amount now in the hands of the Joint Board of Finance, all of which will not be in keeping with the vigorous resolutions passed on this subject by our Conference last year. We present for your adoption the following resolutions, which we sincerely desire may also be carried out:

1. That as a Conference, we record again our sense of the profound importance of the Bible Cause at home and abroad, and recognize the American Bible Society as our greatest helper in this work, without whose aid much of our work in the foreign field would be impossible.

2. That we pledge ourselves as pastors and laymen to see that this cause is presented to all our churches by a sermon or an address on the subject, and that a collection be taken up and the funds so raised be forwarded at once to Rev. T. H. Law, Spartanburg, S. C.

3. That the month of March or April be the special time set apart for this cause.

4. That we further urge upon our pastors and Sunday-school Superintendents to avail themselves of the very generous offer of the American Bible Society to supply our children who have not the Bible at half price, and call upon Rev. Law for the books needed.

J. T. STOVER, Chairman.

Whereas, it is true that from the foundation of the Commonwealth of North Carolina, the work in higher education has been done chiefly by the church and by private enterprise under the endorsement and support of the church; and whereas, we believe it to be in accord with neither the will of the church nor a wise Statecraft for this work to be abandoned by the church and wholly transferred to the State; and whereas, the schools of the church, and therein the cause of higher education are being crippled by the present scope and plan of operating the higher State schools; and whereas, we greatly prefer a proper adjustment of these relations by the State Legislature to a progressive antagonism to these institutions themselves; therefore,

Resolved 1st, That we do hereby respectfully but urgently petition the Legislature of the State of North Carolina next to assemble, to establish such an order in the higher schools under its control as will obviate this conflict of work and intents.

Resolved 2nd, That a committee be appointed by the Chair, whose duty it shall be to visit the next Session of the Legislature and lay before it in behalf of the Conference our complaints and the substance of this petition, and meanwhile to secure a proper discussion of the matter, and to seek the co-operation of other religious bodies in accomplishing the ends of this petition.

Resolved 3rd, That we invite the co-operation of other religious bodies within the State by the appointment of such agencies as they deem best.

Resolved 4th, That in making this petition we do not contemplate any injury to our State schools, within what we regard their rightful and proper limits, but rather their improvement as well as the protection of the interests which we represent.

[Document No. 7.]

The Sunday-school Board beg leave to submit the following report to be designated as Report No. 1 :

Your Board would review with profound thanksgiving to Almighty God those things which have been accomplished this year in behalf of this great department of the church. When we first entered upon our investigation of the work, we felt as many others now doubtless feel, that we were doing very little, but upon a closer investigation, we find that we have much for which we should feel grateful.

In a church membership of 61,000 we have a Sunday-school membership of 45,000. From this later figure take $\frac{1}{4}$ to cover those who are members of our school, but are not members of our church; we find we have passed the line where we have one-half of our church membership as members of our Sunday-schools. This is a hopeful sign and indicates a growing interest in the disposition of many, and a general awakening on the part of the majority of the church. Still, your Board is not satisfied, nor ever will be until our Sunday-schools equal or exceed in members our Church membership. Nor are we dispondent of accomplishing these results if we could do or say anything that would for a moment hold the attention of our people upon this great subject until they realize fully its vital connection with all of the future growth and development of the Church.

If our children are not trained to love our Church (and how can they be so trained, unless we ourselves who are older show an awakened interest in it?) disintegration must of necessity set in and decay will naturally follow. In the church's eager desire to press the missionary and other great interests of the church, she has in a measure neglected the very best medium through which we could accomplish those very same results. We wish to urge right here that this work be given more prominence and care. And that this avenue through which 75 per cent. of our whole membership enters the church should be nursed with more painstaking effort.

1st. That the observance of Children's Day be held in all our churches, and that we comply with the request of our Sunday-school editor in his communication to this body, and see that our collections raised on that day be not allowed to take any other course than that prescribed by the General Conference, or as may be hereinafter set forth.

2nd. That the amount now allowed indigent and needy schools be changed from 40 to 50 per cent. per member; same to be furnished as heretofore in books and periodicals.

3rd. That the preachers shall be requested to organize or revive in all our churches Epworth Leagues on their return to their respective fields.

4th. Your Board has noted with pain the seeming disposition on the part of some of our people to criticise (not always with charity and prudence) the Sunday-school Literature of our Church in public print. We deplore this, and urge our brethren to let this stop. Let him that is without fault cast the first stone, and try to do more towards perfecting the work within the bounds of our own Conference before you discountenance the only helps we have. And if anyone has a suggestion to urge let him offer it in the shape of a memorial to the next General Conference, and thereby comply with the Book of Discipline speaking respectfully of those in authority over us.

5th. That a Sunday-school Anniversary be held each year during the Session of the Annual Conference. We find that our Sunday-school interest have not prospered as we had hoped it would this year. We have two more schools than we had last year, 184 more teachers, 179 less scholars, have collected $399.08 more for Sunday-school literature, $108.04 less for missions, $41.33 less for Children's Day, $105.79 less for other objects. But have collected $133.74 more for all purposes, than last year. Your Board deplores this, and believe the remedy is within our reach if we will only realize it.

J. C. HARDISON, President.

C. H. IRELAND, Secretary.

Resolved, That this Conference urges the vital importance of awakening a more practical interest in the Epworth League on the part of every congregation in the Conference.

Resolved, Further that S. B. Turrentine, Ira Erwin, W. S. Creasy, C. H. Ireland, D. Matt Thompson, be appointed a committee to prepare some plan for the holding of a Conference of League Workers, and otherwise systematic promotion of the League work of the Conference.

L. E. STACY, Secretary.

Your Committee on District Conference Records beg leave to submit the following report :

All the Records have been examined, and we find the Asheville District Record a model of neatness and accuracy.

Statesville District Record a model of neatness and accuracy.

Morganton “ “ accurately and well kept.

Shelby “ “ “ “

Greensboro “ “ The Secretary fails to state the year or the denomination, and the spelling is not good; otherwise well kept.

Charlotte District Record, well and accurately kept, except the absence of a Conference roll.

Franklin District Record.—In the list of delegates present, the laymen are designated as “alternates.” In reports of pastors the record fails in several instances to give names of charge, otherwise it is well kept.

Mount Airy District Record, a model of neatness; only one criticism, Western N. C. Conf. should be written “Western North Carolina Conf.” The authorities are to be congratulated concerning the manner in which their business was transacted and records kept.

Winston District Record, is neatly and well kept.

Salisbury District Record, is nicely kept, the official roll incomplete, the lay delegates from Woodleaf District not given. In speaking of a certain committee being appointed, it should have been “was” appointed. I. M. Shaver seems to have been associated with Dr. Atkins in editing the R. C. Advocate, according to a statement concerning the discussion of the report on Colportage.

Respectfully submitted,

L. A. FALLS, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The report being under consideration, Rev. H. M. Blair offered the following substitute :

Resolved, That we emphasize the importance of enforcing the provisions of our discipline in regard to drinking, drunkenness and the manufacture of liquor, and that we pledge ourselves to continue the fight for prohibition to the end.

2nd, That we will urge our preachers to deliver at least one sermon on temperance at each church or preaching place on the charge during the year.

Dr. James Atkins moved to amend by annexing the language of the discipline on this subject, to the report.

The report as amended was adopted.

OUR DISCIPLINE ON TEMPERANCE.

Question: What shall be done for the extirpation of the great evil of intemperance?

Answer 1: Let all our preachers and members faithfully observe our general rules which forbids drunkenness or drinking spirituous liquors unless in cases of necessity.

2nd, In case of drunkenness, let the discipline be administered as in case of immorality, drunkenness being a crime expressly forbidden in the word of God. In cases of drinking, except in cases of necessity let the discipline be administered as for imprudent or improper conduct.

3rd, Let all our preachers and members abstain from the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage, and if any shall engage in such manufacture or sale, let the discipline be administered as in case of imprudent or improper conduct.

[Document No. 13.]

The Board of Education, charged with the duty of carefully considering the educational work and interests of our Conference, submit the following report :

It is gratifying to us to know, from the reports submitted unto us from the various institutions of learning under the care of our Conference, that, notwithstanding the general financial depression of the country and the multiplication of graded schools and other institutions receiving large appropriations from the State and bidding strongly for the patronage of our people, the attendance upon our schools is nevertheless good. We cannot, however, but view with alarm the growing encroachments of the State upon the legitimate work of the Church in the education of her sons and daughters. And we would emphasize the truth that Christian education is essential to Christian civilization, and that such an education is best secured through denominational channels. The State, as such, is incompetent to this task, and does not pretend to offer other than a secular education. And where churches or parents, in the spirit of infidelity, relegate the education of their young people to the State, they are thus sowing the seed of woeful harvest to be reaped in the not distant future. In view of these things, it is a source of deep regret and of no little apprehension to know that the patronage given by Methodists to other schools, both within and without the State is so large that it would, if given to our own schools, put them at once upon a plane of enlarged and permanent prosperity.

We have received reports from all our colleges and would briefly make mention of each.

TRINITY COLLEGE

Justly comes first, not only as standing at the head of the list of the colleges in our bounds, but also as first in the affections of a large number of our people. In his report, Dr. J. F. Crowell, the president, speaking of the improved condition of the institution over last year, summarizes as follows: "The college is in the hands of its friends, who are with one accord co-operating in its work. Its financial embarrassments which have hung like a nightmare over it ever since its foundation, have at last been overcome. There is a more perfect organization, a more harmonious operation and a deeper sense of security than the college has ever before been able to enjoy." From the same report we are glad to note that the attendance at this date is 15 per cent greater than it was a year ago, and that in some respects the curricula have been enlarged.

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL,

located in Randolph county, has lately begun its third year. Prof. J. F. Haitman is the head master, and is assisted by Profs. English and Jordan, with three other instructors. There are 75 students in attendance. We have received a paper in regard to this work, requesting the Conference to make certain changes in name and to have a Board of Trustees appointed each of the two Conferences in the State to manage said school. Not being familiar with all the circumstances in the case, we would recommend that this Conference appoint two preachers and two laymen, who shall meet a like commission from the N. C. Conference, and these shall meet with the Trustees of Trinity College and agree upon the best plan for the future prosperity of Trinity High School. We believe that it would be better, and do hereby recommend that the name of the school be changed.

WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE

is a Conference school and is doing fine work under the presidency of M. A. Yost. All the members of the faculty are members of the M. E. Church, South, and deeply interested in the educational work of our Conference. The enrollment for this year is 175. We commend this school to our people for their patronage, and urge our preachers and laymen to work for its upbuilding.

DAVENPORT FEMALE COLLEGE

is another of our Conference schools, located in Lenoir, Caldwell county. We are glad to learn that the attendance is larger than it was last year, and that some substantial improvements have been made to the building. Other improvements are much needed in order that we may use to best advantage this valuable property, and meet the demands of the work. We endorse this school and recommend it to our people.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE is a Methodist, though not a Conference school. It is closely identified with us. Noble laymen are carrying it for the church. In addition to the purchase money they paid for it when the church was forced to let it be sold, they have expended between fifteen and twenty thousand dollars in improvements. Under the able presidency of Dr. F. L. Reid, the patronage is good and growing, and we most heartily commend the institution to the patronage of our people and of the general public.

ASHEVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE

is another Methodist school within our bounds. Though it is not the property of the Conference, it is nevertheless closely allied to our Church, and its President, Dr. James Atkins, is an honored member of this Conference. During the last vacation the building was largely refurnished, and the institution is now better equipped than ever for the education of young ladies.

In our report made last year at Winston, this was said, and seemed to meet with the decided approbation of the Conference: While not presuming to dictate to the Board of Trustees and Faculty of our colleges as to the proper management of the schools under their care, we nevertheless feel that we have a right to say and ought to say that it is the decided opinion of your Board that while football and other such sports may perhaps properly be encouraged as means of exercise and physical development on the college campus, yet match-games, in which teams from other colleges come to play with the young men of our schools, or teams from our schools go to play with those of other institutions, are a source of evil and of no little evil, and ought to be stopped.

Alluding to this, the President of Trinity College, in his report to this Conference—a report, by the way, which devotes three and a half pages to the religious life of the students and more than five pages to athletics—says: I can not believe that the Conference meant to put on record its deliberate judgement on this question as far as it relates to Trinity College, without a fair and open discussion of the merits of the case, on the part of the college authorities. But I am inclined to think that like many other statements that get into our Conference records, this one was passed unchallenged, as though it would do no harm if it did no good.

We believe that this assumption on the part of the President of Trinity College is neither courteous nor correct. Without debating the question whether many things go into our records more from the fact that they will do no harm than from an intelligent view the Conference has of their benefits, we wish to restate with the utmost deliberation that the position taken by the Conference last year against inter-collegiate games expresses the intelligent will of the Conference. We desire that the president shall at an early day bring this expression of our views to the attention of the Faculty of Trinity College, that we may know at the next session of the Conference what is to be the future position of the College in regard to this important matter.

It has given us pleasure to have with us Dr. W. F. Tillett, Dean of the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University. We desire to express our appreciation of his visit and heartily commend the department over which he presides to our young men who are preparing for the ministry.

We are also glad to have with us Rev. G. G. Smith, who came in the interest of Payne Institute. We have a deep interest in the permanent prosperity of this school, founded as it is for the education of preachers and teachers connected with the Colored M. E. Church, in America; and we recommend that $300, the amount requested by the commissioner, be assessed this Conference on the same basis as the other collections.

The educational statistics for the year as follows :

Value of Property, $245,000; Number of Teachers, 39; Number of Pupils, 630.

We recommend that the nomination of the following persons, by the Board of Trustees of Trinity College, to fill vacancies in their body be confirmed : S. B. Turrentine, W. R. Barnett, C. W. Tillett and L. J. Hoyle. We also recommend that the nomination by the Alumni Association of P. L. Groome and Dred Peacock be confirmed.

We also recommend that an educational assessment of $5,000 be made, and that of this, Trinity College shall receive $3,000, Weaverville College $1,000, Davenport Female College $500, Trinity High School $500. On the same basis adopted for the other collections the apportionment of this amount to the districts is as follows :

Greensboro District,	$ 620 00
Winston "	512 00
Mt. Airy "	307 00
Statesville "	548 00
Salisbury "	599 00
Charlotte "	617 00
Shelby "	530 00
Morganton "	391 00
Asheville "	508 00
Franklin "	368 00

$ 5,000 00

We recommend that the following appointments be made : Dr. J. F. Crowell Trinity College, Rev. L. W. Crawford as Educational Secretary and Professor of Trinity College, Rev. James Atkins, D. D., as President of Asheville Female College, Rev. J. F. Heitman as Head

Master of Trinity High School, Rev. H. P. Bailey as Principal of Bethel Academy, Rev. J. D. Arnold, Professor in Greensboro Female College, J. P. Rogers Bellwood Institute.

J. A. REAGAN, Chairman of Board.

S. H. HILLIARD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

The committee would again stress the importance of the resolutions of last Conference, which are as follows:

We would recommend the adoption of the following for the promotion of better and safer investments in church property:

1st. That our people are urged to guard against contracting debts which may seriously embarrass the church.

2d. That trustees be urged to allow no work to begin, either in the erection of church or parsonage, until deeds have been examined and found in correct form, according to the requirements of discipline, and also registered.

3d. That the preachers are requested, wherever church buildings are in contemplation, to look carefully after the plans, so as to prevent the erection of churches out of harmony with architectural taste, comfort and convenience.

4th. We recommend that the preachers organize in every charge, where none now exists, a Womans' Parsonage Aid and Home Mission Society.

E. J. POE, Chairman.

J. M. RICE, Secretary.

To the Bishop and Members of the Western North Carolina Conference:

DEAR BRETHREN—Your Committee appointed on Conference Relations submit the following report:

After careful consideration, the cases referred to us, we recommend the following brethren for superannuated relation: W. W. Albea, W. S. Haltom, S. D. Peeler, J. W. Wheeler, W. H. Cooper, W. M. Kerr, J. W. Bird, J. W. Puett, R. W. Pickens, C. M. Anderson, J. A. Wiggins, Z. Rush, J. C. Thomas, C. M. Pepper, C. D. Smith, M. V. Sherrill, E. C. Stamey, T. H. Edwards, S. M. Davis and C. W. King.

We recommend the following for Supernumerary Relation: E. J. Eudaily, S. H. Helsabeck, J. S. Austin, J. P. Reynolds, H. F. Wiley, J. R. Long, J. D. Carpenter and James Wilson.

We also recommend R. G. Barrett, who was referred to us for superannuated relation, be granted a supernumerary relation; and J. F. England be granted a superannuated relation instead of a supernumerary, as referred by the Conference to your committee.

J. B. CARPENTER, Chairman.

J. A. BOWLES, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the W. N. C. Conference :

Your Committee on Memorials to the General Conference beg leave to submit the following report :

We have had all the papers referred to us under consideration. Of these we return the following :

I.

The preamble and resolutions presented to this Conference by Rev. L. W. Crawford, in behalf of the Faculty of Trinity College, relative to ministerial education. The paper reads as follows :

The Faculty of Trinity College recommend that the following memorial to the General Conference be presented and passed by each of the Annual Conferences :

WHEREAS, (1) Many of our young preachers, after one or two years in the itinerancy, realize the need of more education; and

WHEREAS, (2) The tremendous responsibilities of the Gospel demand that our preachers be so prepared that they may be workmen who need not be ashamed; and

WHEREAS, (3) Preachers with the true itinerant spirit dislike to locate or discontinue and thus lose their Conference standing; now therefore,

Be it resolved, That this, the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the M. E. Church South, would most respectfully memorialize the ensuing General Conference to consider the matter rehearsed in this preamble, and, if it be found in harmony with the spirit of Methodism, to enact such laws as will permit our Bishop, with the consent of any Annual Conference concerned, to leave a preacher without appointment to attend one of our institutions of learning.

We have had under consideration—

A resolution presented by James Atkins and others, concerning a General Board of Education. The paper reads as follows :

Resolved, That the Western North Carolina Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference, which is to convene in the city of Memphis in May, 1894, to organize our educational work under the supervision of a Board of Education, similar in its scope and powers to other boards having charge of our work, on other general lines.

JAMES ATKINS,
J. A. REAGAN,
CHAS. W. BYRD,
S. H. HILLIARD.

The committee returns this paper and recommends its adoption.

The following resolutions are submitted as a substitute for the paper presented by C. W. Byrd and H. P. Baily, concerning the licensing of local preachers :

Resolved, That the Western North Carolina Conference memo-realize the General Conference to strike out all sections of the Discipline which gives to the Quarterly Conference authority to license persons to preach and which make local preachers amenable to the Quarterly Conference, and that in lieu thereof it be provided—

1st. That the District Conference shall have authority to license proper persons to preach after examination of them held by a committee appointed by the District Conference; provided that no application for license to preach shall be considered by the District Conference unless the applicant shall have been first recommended by the church of which he is a member to the Quarterly Conference as a proper person to be licensed, and then recommended by the Quarterly Conference to the District Conference, likewise, as a proper person to be licensed.

2d. That the District Conference shall have authority to renew the licenses of local preachers annually, when, in its judgment, their gifts, grace and usefulness will warrant it, and to recommend suitable candidates to the annual Conference for deacons' and elders' orders in the local connection.

3d. That local preachers shall be amenable to the District Conference, which shall have power to try, acquit and expel them under rules and regulations to be provided by the General Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. BARNETT, Chairman.

H. M. BLAIR, Secretary.

On motion that we instruct the Committee on Publication of Minutes to not publish in the minutes the appropriations for Domestic Missions made to the various charges in the Conference, the Board asks that the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) be raised for Domestic Mission work the ensuing year, and that sum, together with the amount assessed upon this Conference by the Parent Board, ($13,500) has been apportioned to the districts as follows :

NOTE.

Centenary Church, Winston, paid $750.00 for Foreign Missions. Of this amount the Men's Missionary Society paid $460.00 to support Rev. W. A. Wilson, in Japan. It will be seen that this charge paid an average of $10.05 per member.

Please remember that the roll was called ONLY at the opening session of Conference, and if your name does not appear as being present, it is because you did not respond.

Very truly,

C. G. MONTGOMERY.
